ARTICLE I – NAME

The name of this organization shall be The Colorado Association of Libraries (CAL).

ARTICLE II – PURPOSE

The purposes of CAL are to:

- promote library services to citizens of Colorado,
- foster professional growth and development of its membership,
- provide essential resources, support, and advocacy for Colorado libraries and the communities they serve,
- lead, educate, and advocate for the advancement of the Colorado library community.

ARTICLE III - MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Application

Any person or organization who supports the purposes of CAL may, upon payment of dues, become a member.

Section 2. Non-discrimination

The Colorado Association of Libraries is open to all people and shall not discriminate in employment, membership, or participation in sponsored activities on the basis of race, religion or creed, ethnicity, national origin, age, gender, gender identity or expression, sexual orientation, veteran status, or intellectual and developmental disabilities.

Section 3. Associate Members

Any other library organization may become an Associate Member by written agreement with the Executive Board.

Section 4. Privileges

Only individual CAL members are eligible to vote and hold elected office.

Members shall receive publications and services in accordance with the Policies and Procedures Manual adopted by the Executive Board.

Only members in good standing are eligible to participate in CAL's Committees and Interest Groups.

ARTICLE IV - DUES

Section 1. Adoption

The Executive Board shall determine dues.

Section 2. Payment

The membership year is twelve months following the date a member pays annual dues. The membership renewal date is static based on the initial month of joining. Failure to pay annual dues within 2 months of the anniversary date shall constitute forfeiture of membership, which may be reinstated upon payment of dues.

ARTICLE V - MEETINGS

Section 1. Official Calendar

The Business Manager shall maintain the official calendar.

Section 2. Annual Business Meeting

The Executive Board shall determine the place and time of the annual business meeting.

Section 3. Special Meetings

The President may call special meetings of the membership with the approval of the Executive Board, or by written petition signed by one-twentieth of the members eligible to vote at such meetings.

Section 4. Notice

The Business Manager shall inform each member of any meeting at least ten days in advance.

Section 5. Voting

Procedures for voting shall be established by the Executive Board in order to conduct necessary business between annual business meetings, or in lieu of a quorum.

Section 6. Quorum

Ten percent of the individual members shall constitute a quorum at any meeting.

Section 7. Registration Fee

The Executive Board shall set fees for all meetings, conferences, and other events.

ARTICLE VI - EXECUTIVE BOARD

Section 1. Powers

The property, affairs, activities, and concerns of CAL shall be vested in the Executive Board.

Section 2. Officers and Board Members

The Executive Board consists of the following members.

- The President-Elect shall commit to six (6) years; years 1 and 2 serving as President-Elect, years 3 and 4 as President, and years 5 and 6 as Past President, which is an ex-officio position.
- The Treasurer shall serve a three (3) year term.
- The Secretary shall serve a two (2) year term.
- Regional Representatives and Members-at-large shall serve two (2) year terms on the Executive Board.
- The Chair of the Conference Planning Committee shall serve a one (1) year term.
- The ALA Counselor shall serve a three (3) year term.

The voting officers shall be President, President-Elect, Secretary, and Treasurer. Other voting members include the Regional Representatives, the Members-at-large, the Chair of the Conference Planning Committee, and the ALA Counselor. No individual may hold two voting positions.

All Executive Board Members must be legal residents of the United States, Colorado residents, and individual CAL members in good standing.

The Board shall assume their duties on the first day of the calendar year.

The President shall preside at all meetings of CAL and the Executive Board and shall be an ex-officio member, with the right to vote, of all committees except the Nominating Committee.

The President-Elect shall perform the duties of the President during the absence of the President.

The Secretary shall be responsible for the current records of CAL.

The Treasurer shall be the chief fiduciary officer and shall serve as the financial advisor and representative on all committees concerned with the financial structure and programs. The Treasurer shall submit financial statements and reports as required by the Executive Board.

Board members may designate a proxy to represent them, with voting powers on established written agenda items, at Executive Board meetings. Written or email notification of said proxy must be received by the President at least 24 hours prior to an Executive Board meeting. In the case of the President, similar notification must be given to the President-Elect.

Section 3. Meetings

The President shall call a minimum of four meetings per year. A majority of the Executive Board may call a special meeting. Between meetings, a vote by email, conference call or other means may be taken by the President, in accordance with procedures established by the Executive Board, and shall be recorded in the minutes of the next meeting.

Section 4. Quorum

A quorum is a simple majority of voting Board members.

Section 5. Absence

If a member is absent for more than two meetings in one year without good cause, a majority of the Executive Board may declare that person's position vacant.

Section 6. Resignation

Any board member may resign by giving written notice to the President.

Section 7. Removal

Any board member may be removed by a majority vote of the Executive Board.

Section 8. Vacancies

The Executive Board shall fill, by appointment, any at-large vacancy until the next annual election.

Section 9. Policies and Procedures Manual

The Executive Board shall maintain and follow the Policies and Procedures Manual that identifies the roles and responsibilities of officers and committees, and that documents management procedures. Revisions to the Policies and Procedures Manual shall be approved by a majority vote of the CAL Executive Board.

Section 10. Staff

The Executive Board shall employ a management company and determine its terms of service, compensation, and methods of evaluation.

ARTICLE VII - REPRESENTATIVES

Section 1. Elected Representatives

A Delegate to the American Association of School Librarians, and a Representative to the Mountain Plains Library Association shall be ex-officio non-voting members of the Executive Board. A Counselor to the American Library Association shall be a voting member of the Executive Board. Terms and responsibilities of Elected Representatives shall be in accordance to the CAL Policies and Procedures Manual.

Section 2. Eligibility

Each elected representative shall be a legal resident of the United States, a resident of Colorado, an individual member of CAL, and an individual member of the organization to which he or she is the representative.

Section 3. Removal

Any representative may be removed by a majority vote of the Executive Board.

Section 4. Vacancies

The Executive Board shall fill by appointment any Representative vacancies until the next annual election.

ARTICLE VIII - NOMINATION OF EXECUTIVE BOARD MEMBERS AT-LARGE

Section 1. Candidates

Members must indicate their intent to run for office for any elected representative position vacancy to the President Elect.

Section 2. Consent

Should a candidate be nominated for an elected position, the executive board shall obtain written consent of the candidate before placing that person's name on the ballot.

Section 3. Slate of Candidates

The slate of candidates will be made available to the board at the executive board meeting prior to the call for a membership vote.

The slate of candidates will be made public no later than 21 days prior to the election due date.

Section 4. Nomination by Petition

Individual members of CAL may be nominated by petition for any elected office. Petitions must be signed by a minimum of twenty-five individual members of CAL and must be accompanied by the nominee's written consent.

ARTICLE IX - ELECTIONS

Section 1. Annual Ballot

The ballot for the annual election shall contain the names of CAL candidates for vacant Officer positions. It may also contain the names of candidates for vacant Elected Representative positions, and any issues requiring a vote of the membership.

Section 2. Elections

Electronic ballots shall be distributed to each individual member in a secure and timely manner. Completed ballots received by the advertised end of the election time frame will be counted.

Section 3. Report

All ballots shall be counted and reported to the Executive Board in a timely manner. Candidates shall be informed of the results promptly thereafter. The results of the election shall be published in an official publication. A plurality shall elect.

Section 4. Tie votes

In the event of a tie, a re-vote of the current CAL membership shall occur at the direction of CAL's Executive Board.

ARTICLE X - FISCAL AFFAIRS

Section 1. Fiscal Year

The fiscal year shall be the calendar year.

Section 2. Annual Budget

CAL shall develop an Annual Budget in keeping with its operational programs and activities.

Section 3. Authorization of Funds

No expense shall be incurred on behalf of CAL except upon authorization of the Executive Board.

Section 4. Management of Funds

The Treasurer shall be responsible for all funds and shall file all necessary reports. CAL shall use its funds only to accomplish the purposes specified in these bylaws. No part of said funds shall inure or be distributed to the members of CAL.

Section 5. Audit

The financial records shall be audited once every three years, to cover the prior three year period, beginning with 2018 records to be audited in 2019.

ARTICLE XI - COMMITTEES

Section 1. Purpose

The purpose of each Committee shall be to carry out the business of CAL and the Executive Board according to each Committee Charge described in the Policies and Procedures Manual.

Section 2. Establishment

The Executive Board may establish standing or special committees to perform work for CAL or to advise the Executive Board. Committees may be committees of CAL or of the Executive Board.

Section 3. Membership

A Committee may only admit members who are members of CAL in good standing.

Section 4. Dissolution

Any Committee may be dissolved by action of the Executive Board.

Section 5. Report

Each Committee shall submit an annual report to the Executive Board.

ARTICLE XII - INTEREST GROUPS

Section 1. Purpose

The purpose of an Interest Group is to provide collaborative opportunities for members who have similar interests but are not numerous enough to establish a Division.

Section 2. Establishment

A petition to the Executive Board for the establishment of an Interest Group shall state the purpose of and need for the proposed Interest Group. Petitions shall be signed by at least eight members.

Section 3. Membership

Any CAL member in good standing may choose membership in any of the Interest Groups.

Section 4. Dissolution

An Interest Group may be dissolved by action of its members with the approval of the Executive Board. If the Interest Group does not submit an annual report to the Executive Board for two consecutive years, the Executive Board may dissolve the Interest Group.

Section 5. Reports

Interest Groups shall submit a brief annual report to the Executive Board.

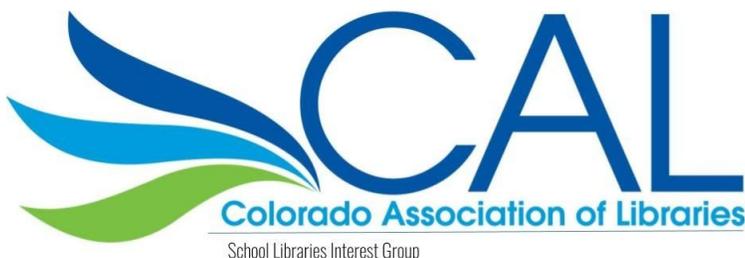

ARTICLE XIII - COMMUNICATIONS

Section 1. Publications

All Interest Group and Committee communications shall be under the auspices of CAL.

Section 2. Logo

An Interest Group may develop a logo that may be used on internal communications, such as a newsletter header or on the group's page within the CAL website. The logo shall be the CAL logo as the A line, and the interest group name as the b line. An example follows below.

Section 3. Webpages

Any online presence, including web pages, blogs, wikis, etc., of any Interest Group or Committee must be linked to CAL's website and be approved by the CAL Executive Board. Any online presence under the auspices of CAL shall adhere to standards of integrity, professionalism, and ethics.

ARTICLE XIV - AFFILIATION WITH OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

Section 1. Process

CAL may affiliate with other library, technology, or educational organizations by a majority of the voting members. Any financial obligation or arrangement by CAL to other organizations shall be approved by the Executive Board.

Section 2. Representatives

The Executive Board may appoint representatives to functions and activities as needed.

ARTICLE XV - RECORDS

The Executive Board shall determine records policy and designate a repository.

ARTICLE XVI - PARLIAMENTARY AUTHORITY

The parliamentary authority shall be the current edition of the American Institute of Parliamentarians Standard Code of Parliamentary Procedure when it is not in conflict with these bylaws.

ARTICLE XVII - INDEMNIFICATION

CAL shall indemnify its officers, employees, Executive Board members, and others who are appointed to act for CAL.

ARTICLE XVIII - DISSOLUTION

On dissolution of CAL, any funds remaining shall be distributed to one or more like association(s) or foundation(s) organized as a nonprofit corporation under section 501(c)6 or 501(c)3 of the Internal Revenue Code, as selected by the Executive Board at the time of dissolution.

ARTICLE XIX - AMENDMENTS/REVISIONS

Bylaw revisions shall be reviewed by the Parliamentarian and then submitted to the Executive Board for acceptance. Revisions shall be approved by two-thirds of the membership voting in the annual election.
